

Hello!

I'm sorry your Christmas present hasn't arrived yet. We've been very busy here at the North Pole and the reindeer are working overtime to deliver gifts to children all over the world!

But don't worry, your brand new Springfree Trampoline is on its way and I know you're going to love it! If it's too heavy for my sleigh, I'll organise a van to deliver it to you - so keep an eye out. Merry Christmas and happy jumping!

Love

Santa
