

Health Check

Springfree trampolines are built to last, using only the highest-quality components. However, as all outdoor products incur general wear and tear over time, it is important to inspect your trampoline and complete a health check from time to time.

Use this health check to help guide you through an inspection of your Springfree to ensure your trampoline remains in great condition.

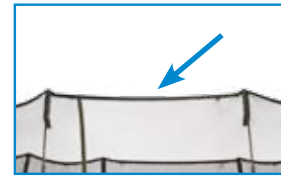

FlexiNet

- No holes
- No fraying of edges & seams
- Zipper is fully functional

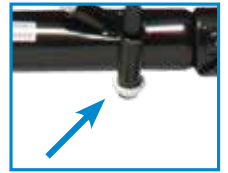

FOR LARGE OVAL & JUMBO SQUARE TRAMPOLINES:

- Horizontal rods are in place within the sleeve

Net Rods

- None broken
- No missing C-Clips
- No flaking or cracked sleeves
- Rods secure in net rod sleeves

SoftEdge Mat

- No holes
- No fraying of stitching
- No sagging on mat surface

Mat Rods & Sleeves

- None broken
- No missing rods or sleeves
- Not disconnected from mat rod holders
- No flaking or cracked sleeves
- Secured in frame sockets
- Sleeves fitted to the top of the rod

Frame, Legs, Nuts & Bolts

- No rust
- Not bent or broken
- No scratches
- Frame drain holes are clear

Mat Rod Holders

- None missing
- None broken
- Properly inserted into the mat